

2009 Rookie of the Year Application

To be considered a rookie in any division, driver must not have previously participated in any more than four IMCA sanctioned race programs in that division. Driver may not 'drop down' a division and still be considered a rookie - progression of order is as follows: Sport Compact, Hobby Stock, SportMod, Crate Model, Stock Car, Modified, Sprint Car, Late Model.

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Signature: _____

In signing I acknowledge that I have not competed in more than four races in this division in my career.

Performance Bodies will award the National Hobby Stock rookie winner a nosepiece and headlight decal kit.

Performance Bodies will award the National Northern and Southern SportMod rookie winner a $100 product certificate or a free spruce-up special (2 doors, 2 quarter panels).

BRODIX will award each Late Model Rookie winner one set of Brodix Cylinder Heads.

WORLD Products will award the Modified, Stock Car and Sprint Car National rookie winner one set of World Products cylinder heads and assembly kit.

- Late Model (Brodix)
- Deery Brothers Series (Brodix)
- Hobby Stock (Performance Bodies)
- SportMod (Performance Bodies)
- Sport Compact
- Crate Model
- Modified (World Products)
- Stock Car (World Products)
- Sprint Car (World Products)

Return application to: IMCA, P.O. Box 921, Vinton, IA 52349-0921