

2010 Rookie of the Year Application

To be considered a rookie in any division, driver must not have previously participated in any more than four IMCA sanctioned race programs in their career in that division. Driver may not 'drop down' a division and still be considered a rookie - progression of order is as follows: Sport Compact, Hobby Stock, SportMod, Stock Car, Modified, Late Model.

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Signature: _____

In signing I acknowledge that I have not competed in more than four races in this division in my career.

Performance Bodies will award the National Hobby Stock rookie winner a nosepiece and headlight decal kit.

Performance Bodies will award the National Northern and Southern SportMod rookie winner a $100 product certificate or a free spruce-up special (2 doors, 2 quarter panels).

BRODIX will award each Late Model Rookie winner one set of Brodix Cylinder Heads.

WORLD Products will award the Modified and Stock Car National rookie winner one set of World Products cylinder heads and assembly kit.

Howard Cams will award $100 cash and a $150 certificate to each Modified, Stock Car, Hobby Stock, SportMod and Late Model rookie of the year.

- Late Model (Brodix)
- Deery Brothers Series (Brodix)
- Hobby Stock (Performance Bodies)
- SportMod (Performance Bodies)
- Sport Compact
- Modified (World Products)
- Stock Car (World Products)

Return application to: IMCA, P.O. Box 921, Vinton, IA 52349-0921